

The city of Gilroy (population 49,934) sales activity is heavily influenced by sales on the lower end which results in the chart looking more dramatic. Call me if you are looking for information for a specific price range or property. The recent expansion of Hwy 101 has improved the viability of Gilroy and all south county locations. Gilroy has been in transition from agricultural to bedroom community for the past 25+ years. However, recently employment and business centers have been moving to the area resulting in less reliance for Gilroy residents on central Santa Clara county for services.
